Gerhard Arnold New Works

Oil Painter
19th Century Style

GERHARD ARNOLD

Chasen Galleries has just placed several new oil paintings by European artist, Gerhard Arnold on our website. Click on any of these images to view them.

Gerhard Arnold was born February 14, 1938 in Ludwigshafen/Rein, Germany. He received training at the Varkkunst School of Arts in Offenbach, Germany.

Of special importance to the development of his style and technique was private tutoring by Carl Dorrbecker, a well-known artist. In addition, several informative trips and contact with many other artists influenced his work.

His main technique is oil painting and his work clearly shows his individual "handwriting." Whether his landscapes, architecture or still-lives, the viewer recognizes his adherence to tradition and the style of painting of the 19th century.

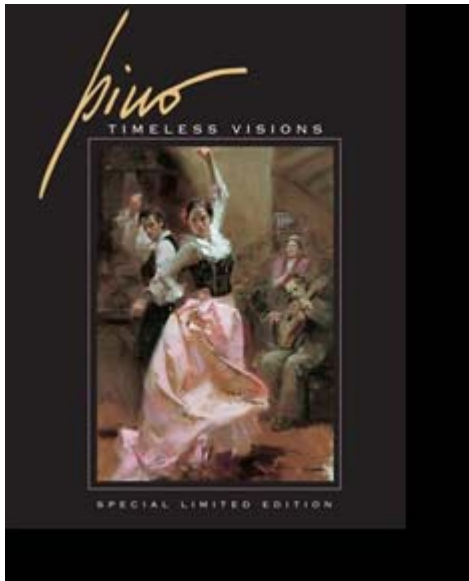

With his choice of motifs, Gerhard Arnold does not need special models, but he looks for creative possibilities near or far. Gerhard Arnold paints only original oils on canvas and does not reproduce his work.

Chasen Galleries is proud to be the EXCLUSIVE REPRESENTATIVE for Gerhard

Arnold in the United States.
